DIVERSION

His Problem

Into the night court they marched a man who had all the earmarks of a professional tough guy. This chap was as desperate looking as any gorilla you've ever seen.

The magistrate looked down at the surly prisoner.
"Well," asked His Honor, "guilty or not guilty?"
The prisoner scowled.

Not Needed

"In this scene, Miss Trimm, the young man rushes into the room, grabs you, binds you with rope from head to foot, and then smoothers you with kisses," explained the film director.
"Is the young man tall, fair, and handsome?" the actress asked.
"Yes. Why?" he asked.
"Then he won't need an' rope," she replied.—Stry Stories Magazine.

600,000 Triborough Bridge Is Completed

Triborough bridge linking Manhattan, the Queens and the Bronx, which was recently dedicated, is the largest bridge in the world. It was built at a cost of $84,000,000 by the PWA. Photo shows one of the great chainwork which is second in size to the Golden Gate bridge in San Francisco.

Just a Little Smile

TRADING JOBS

The navigator and the chief engineer had an argument as to who was the most indispensable in operating the ship; whereupon the navigator agreed to take a try at the engineer officer's job and the engineer officer agreed to take the bridge.

KNOWS HIS TASTES

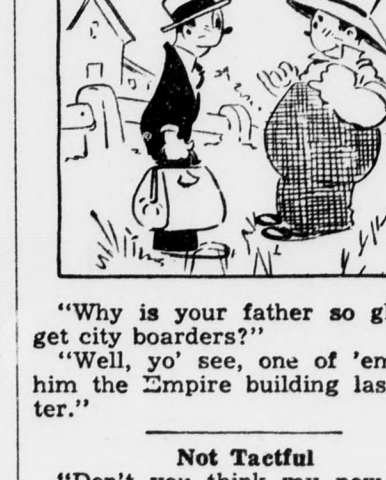

Kid—Do you exchange goods that ain't wanted?
Druggist—Certainly. We like to please our customers.
Kid—Well, I've got fifteen cents' worth of castor oil we bought here. I want to exchange it for a chocolate sundae.

Practical Youth Is Sadly Misunderstood

"We're having stew for dinner," said the scoutmaster to the ten-year-old, "and I want you to run and fetch me a turnip from Farmer Brown's field."
"Do you want a fairly big one?" asked the tenderfoot.
"Oh, pick one about the size of your head," was the reply.
The tenderfoot started for Farmer Brown's field. About twenty minutes elapsed, then Brown came rushing into camp, greatly excited. "Come quick with me!" he gasped. "One of your kids has gone mad, and he's pulling up all my turnips and trying his hat on them!"—Tit-Bits Magazine.

Ostentation of Wealth

"Ostentation of wealth is something which good taste always avoids."
"Especially," said Senator Sorghum, "when the subject under discussion happens to be a campaign fund."

Who's Lifetime?

"But you guaranteed that this watch would last me a lifetime." "I know—but you didn't look very healthy the day you bought it!"—Lewisohn Journal.

Captivating Daytime Frock

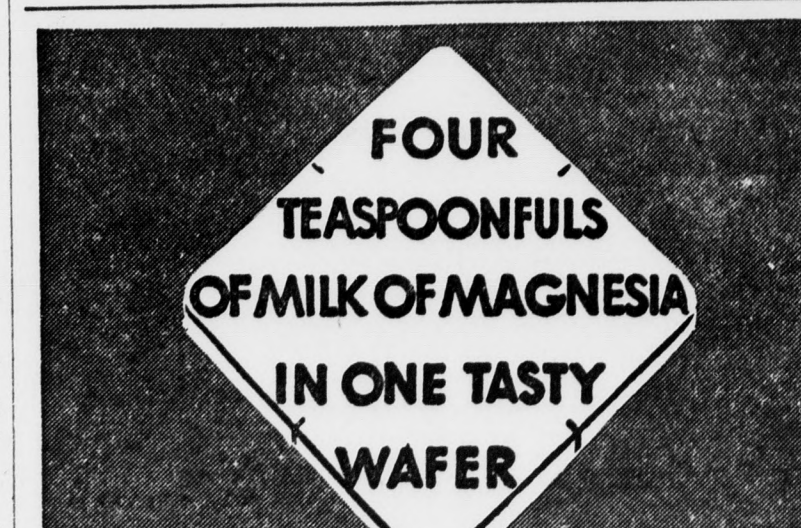

Pattern No. 1916-B

This clever dress features a flattering yoke which dips to a point in front and is equipped with twin slashes a few inches below the neckline to accommodate a ribbon bow of any color you wish to use. Most women like several different ones to which they match their accessories. Radiating tucks at the yoke and waist contribute a smooth fit and flattering effect, while center seams in front and back terminate in two kick pleats for reserved fullness where it will do the most good. The printed pockets with shaped turned over flaps are novel. You'll want to make more than one dress, because the pattern is so easy to follow and the fabrics so numerous to choose from. How about seersucker, novelty cotton, linen, crash or silk.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1916-B is available for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 3 1/2 yards of 30 inch material. Send 15 cents in coins. Send for the Summer Pattern Book containing 100 Barbara Bell well-planned, easy-to-make patterns.
